GROTTA

Grotta is now accepting applications for 2-3 week last call Summer residency in 2022.

We accept applications year-round, for residencies between April and November. Applications for 2023 Residencies are also welcomed.

ABOUT OUR RESIDENCIES

Grotta is a contemporary art space in South West Spain –in the middle of Sierra de Aracena Natural Park, providing residencies for visual artists, makers, photographers, designers, musicians, writers, researchers and all other types of creative practitioners.

Grotta is a place for research and experimentation; these are the pillars of our philosophy. With our Residency Programme we welcome artists and researchers to develop, alone or with collaborators, their own large or small scale projects.

Grotta's aim is to support the development of ideas and the production of new work, by offering comfortable, self-catering, accommodation and workshop and study space for experimentation, development and creativity.

ACCOMODATION

Our residency program is designed to provide the ideal environment for research and artistic creation while in direct contact with a natural setting. Depending on your situation, we offer three different options:

1. Residency for an individual artist.
2. Collective (no more than 2 artists).
3. Artist +1*

* As an artist-run residency, we launch a pioneering work-life balance program for those who want to bring along one family member or partner to the residency.
